BOARD OF SUPERVISORS, COUNTY OF SIERRA, STATE OF CALIFORNIA
RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION
HON. SARAH JACKSON, MAYOR, CITY OF LOYALTON

WHEREAS, the town of Loyalton was founded by Sierra County pioneers in 1854 and was named Smith's Neck after the adjacent creek of the same name; and,

WHEREAS, in 1864, during the United States Civil War, Pro-Union leagues flourished nationwide, and locally a movement developed to rename Smith's Neck to Loyalton, in support of the Union Forces of the United States; and,

WHEREAS, in 1901, the town of Loyalton incorporated and today remains the only city in Sierra County, representing about a third of the county's population but 1/10th of a percent of its land mass; and,

WHEREAS, Sarah Jackson was elected to the Loyalton City Council on November 6, 2018, and was reelected to a second four-year term on November 8, 2022, serving the citizens of her community on a daily basis on any number of issues of importance to the community; and,

WHEREAS, in January 2019, her fellow council members voted her the 28th Mayor of the City of Loyalton, a position that she as served with professionalism and distinction for 3 years and 6 months; and,

WHEREAS, recently Mayor Jackson has announced her retirement from city government with plans to relocate to the state of Tennessee.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Sierra County Board of Supervisors, on behalf of the citizens of Sierra County, do recognize Mayor Sarah Jackson of the City of Loyalton, acknowledge the dedication and professionalism in which she has served her community, extends their sincere thanks and appreciation for this tenure of service.

Adopted at a regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Sierra County, California by a unanimous vote on the 15th day of August 2023.
